

Family Reading Guide for:

Lola Reads to Leo by Anna McQuinn, illustrated by Rosaline Beardshaw

Below are some comments and questions to use when you share this book with your child. Pick a few that interest you and maybe add some of your own! The idea is to enjoy sharing the book with your child and talking about it as you read.

Explore the story together, talk about it, and most of all have FUN!

Note: Page number 1 is the first page of the story with writing. Before they first share the book with their child, some people like to put small numbered sticky notes or very light pencil markings in the book to tell them what page they are on. It does make it easier to use these questions!

The first page of this book begins with the words: Lola's day always ends with a story.

Page	Question
Cover	Who are these children? What can you tell me about this book?
1	Why does Lola's day always end with a story?
5	What types of things do you think will go on the baby's new shelves?
10	How would you cheer Leo up?
17	Why do you think new babies sleep a lot?
23	How are Daddy, Mommy, Lola, and Leo feeling? How can you tell?
	What kind of stories do you like to read?
