

Hear-and-Say Reading Planning Worksheet

Remember! Great dialogic reading sessions always include:

- ✓ Introducing the title and author of the book. Point them out with your finger.
- ✓ Asking the children what they think the story will be about based on the title and cover.
- ✓ Using each type of prompting question when planning your story times.
- ✓ Following up your questions by acknowledging the children's responses, expanding on their ideas, and repeating key information.

Book Title: Lola Reads to Leo by Anna McQuinn

The first page of this book begins with: Lola's day always ends with a story.

Helpful tip: For easy reference, use the prompt questions on the labels or photocopy them and attach them on the appropriate pages in the book.

Extension Activities:

- Leaving a 1-inch margin, draw a picture frame on a piece of cardstock. Give children materials to decorate the frame (bits of tissue paper or construction paper, markers, crayons, etc.) and ask them to draw a picture of their family in the center.
- Ask children to draw a picture for Leo and dictate a story about it. Write the story at the bottom of their picture.
- Help Leo go to sleep with a flannel bedtime story. Use this link for an example: <https://bit.ly/30sdgT8>.
