

Hear-and Say Reading Planning Worksheet

Remember! Great hear-and-say reading sessions always include:

- ✓ Introducing the title and author of the book. Point them out with your finger.
- ✓ Asking the children what they think the story will be about based on the title and cover.
- ✓ Using each type of prompting question when planning your story times.
- ✓ Following up your questions by acknowledging the children's responses, expanding on their ideas, and repeating key information.

Book Title: Giraffes Can't Dance by Giles Andreae

The first page of this book begins with: Gerald was a tall giraffe whose neck was long and slim.

Helpful tip: For easy reference, use the prompt questions on the labels or photocopy them and attach them on the appropriate pages in the book.

Extension Activities:

- Literacy/Gross Motor: Help children create and decorate a "Jungle Dance" sign. After deciding on a variety of music and dances, hold a classroom dance. Children can take turns dancing alone or with others. Maybe end with everyone dancing together.
- Literacy: Once the children are very familiar with the story, narrate it while they act it out.
- Science: Learn about giraffes and how they move. Do the same with perhaps elephants, monkeys, lions. Why do they think the animals each move in their own way? Have children consider and demonstrate how the animals move and how they would look if they were dancing. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=bNYXweQ81vI>
