

If You Give a Pig a Pancake Extension Activities for the Classroom

Language Arts:

Beginning Sound Pancakes

Cut out cardboard circles for the pancakes and yellow squares for the butter. On the pancakes, glue pictures of various objects. On each butter square, glue a letter (capital, lower case or both). Have each student create their own plate of pancakes, making sure they match the pancakes to the butter.

Construction:

Build a Treehouse

Using blocks, Legos, or popsicle sticks, have your students build a treehouse, like Pig built in the story.

Songs and Rhymes:

"Ten Little Piggies"

Ten little pigs rolled in the mud.
Squishy, squashy, they need a scrub!
The farmer took one piggy out.
"Oink, oink, oink" that pig did shout!

Continue with nine, eight, seven etc.

No little pigs rolled in the mud.
They looked so clean after their scrub.
The farmer turned his back and then...
Those pigs rolled in the mud again!

"Five Pigs So Squeaky Clean"

5 Pigs So Squeaky Clean

(Tune: "Five Green and Speckled Frogs")

Five pigs so squeaky clean
Cleanest you've ever seen
Wanted to go outside and play
Oink! Oink!
One jumped into the mud
Landed with a great big THUD
Then there were four clean
squeaky pigs.

Four pigs so squeaky clean
Cleanest you've ever seen
Wanted to go outside and play
Oink! Oink!
One jumped into the mud
Landed with a great big THUD
Then there were three clean
squeaky pigs.

Three pigs so squeaky clean
Cleanest you've ever seen
Wanted to go outside and play
Oink! Oink!
One jumped into the mud
Landed with a great big THUD
Then there were two clean
squeaky pigs.

Two pigs so squeaky clean
Cleanest you've ever seen
Wanted to go outside and play
Oink! Oink!
One jumped into the mud
Landed with a great big THUD
Then there was one clean squeaky pig.

One pig so squeaky clean
Cleanest you've ever seen
Wanted to go outside and play
Oink! Oink!
One jumped into the mud
Landed with a great big THUD
Then there were no clean squeaky pigs.
